

Copyright Policy

Permissions: You are permitted to reproduce and distribute this material in any format provided that you do not alter the wording in any way and do not charge a fee beyond the cost of reproduction. For web posting, a link to the document on our website is preferred. Any exceptions to the above must be approved by Nikos Ministry.

Copyrights exist for all material found on this website, and law expressly prohibits any changes or revisions. However, our copyrights mean, “you have the right to copy, so copy it right!” Please feel free to copy and print out any material that’s “readable” for personal or church use (but not for sale). Also, please do not republish our content on the internet as this hinders our work in the search engines - instead please link to the content you like to www.nikosministry.co.za (that actually helps us get better positions in the search engines). If you do link to us please drop us an email so we will know. Thanks for honoring this request.

Our web pages are for non-profit educational and evangelistic purposes only. In some cases, we may use images from web sources with similarly-stated purposes and copyright notices, and we always intend to give appropriate credit for using such images. However, sometimes copyright holders, sources, and web links change, and we may be in accidental violation of someone’s copyright. If that happens, please contact us immediately and accept our sincere apology. We will add your credit line or remove the image entirely.

When it comes to images, we cannot pass along any rights to our users. We are using these images under various non-commercial licenses and notices, and we can’t assign those to anyone else. Therefore, please don’t copy or reproduce these images for distribution beyond your personal educational and religious use. Thank you for honoring this request.

If you have any further questions regarding this policy, please contact us via email at info@nikosministry.co.za
